

Turn Your Vacation into a Donation

The Humane Society of Northwest Indiana now has its own travel site!! This website is similar to the other booking travel sites and has all the selections and features of other online booking websites.

This new travel alternative website provides an source for the supporters of the humane society to book their travel. Current statistics show that as much as 85% of all personal travel is booked online.

To book your travel go to www.havecritterswilltravel.com. You will receive competitive travel rates or better and you would be helping a cause that you believe in.

Each time you book travel, the Humane Society of Northwest Indiana will receive 40% of all travel commissions.
